3-25 Oct: Fotoleggendo, Passion and Profession

The photographic cultural event, which gets its name thanks to the portfolio readings and awards, reaches its fourth edition this year. The month-long festival will feature 18 photo exhibits, projections, book presentations, workshops, seminars and shows. The workshops allow amateurs and outsiders to participate in photography advancement courses for celebrity, photojournalism and fashion snappers, as well as in Photoshop skills. The Fotoleggendo award will be handed out at the beginning of the festival, acknowledging the best portfolio of the year, accompanied by exhibitions by some of the best Italian photographers portraying social themes close to their heart.
